Carteret Cruisers Hit the Road!

September 25th we will visit Sylvan Heights Bird Park in Scotland Neck after having a great breakfast at Yoders in Grifton! Take your time and enjoy the sights at the park. A cafe is on sight for lunch! This trip will leave at 7am with an approximate return of 5pm.

We will journey to Oriental for the Ol' Front Porch Festival where we will enjoy a wide variety of music as well as various craft and other vendors and a food market to satisfy your cravings! The bus leaves at 10am <https://olfrontporch.org/schedule#collapseFri1b>

November 7th
Wilson Whirligig Festival
Wilson, NC

The North Carolina Whirligig Festival was created in 2004 to encourage community spirit and unity. Vollis Simpson's iconic Whirligigs, uniquely Wilson symbols, were the perfect focal point. Since then, the festival has been held annually during the first full weekend in November to celebrate people and art in motion.
